Houston Narcotic Company

OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Incorporated under State Law, for the Cure of the LIQUOR AND OPIUM HABITS.

It has been discovered that the liquor habit, as well as the opium and morphine habits, is a disease, and it can be successfully treated as such. The victim of either of these habits can be radically, speedily, and permanently cured.

The Houston Narcotic Cure

does this, as has been abundantly and thoroughly demonstrated. The medicines used in this cure are prepared in the laboratory of Dr. Houston, and they act with wonderful success. They build up the nervous system, and cause patients to have an absolute distaste for liquor in from two to five days, and at the end of the patient is entirely cured. Patients are not incapacitated from labor a single minute by the treatment, and are not prevented from attending their usual avocations. The appetite improves, natural sleep is enjoyed from the first, and all the senses are restored to former vigor, and stimulated into natural activity. The cure is not by a tearing down, but by a building up process. Hundreds of testimonials as to the efficacy of the treatment can be presented.

A cure is guaranteed to all who take the treatment according to the rules, or the money paid for treatment will be refunded.

Liquors will be furnished all patients needing them free of charge.

We invite an investigation of the Houston System, and solicit correspondence by all who have been in the thrall of the liquor or opium habits, or the friends of such. Sure relief is guaranteed them.

Biographical Sketches

GOVERNOR.

JOHN BUTLER SMITH, of Hillsborough, is the son of Ammi and Lydia F. Smith, and was born at Rockingham, Vermont, April 12, 1838. He comes from sturdy Scotch-Irish stock, whose characteristics have been the strength and pride of the leading men and women of our state, and his New Hampshire origin is traced in the fact that he is descended from Lieut. Thomas Smith, who first settled in Chester, lived for a time in Londonderry and afterwards removed to New Boston; and his father Ammi was born in Acworth, removing to Vermont at the age of 33, and became a successful woolen manufacturer there. When John B. was nine years old his father removed to Hillsborough, where he lived until his death, in 1887.

The subject of this sketch received his early education in the public schools of the town and at Francestown academy where he excelled as a classical scholar, and at the age of 16 he was nearly fitted for college. He was led, however, to adopt a business career and after engaging in employment in Henniker, Manchester and New Boston, in 1863 he began business for himself by purchasing a drug store in Manchester, which he owned for a year, and then established a knit goods factory in the town of Washington. Subsequently he leased the Sawyer woolen mill at North Weare, and in 1866 he built at Hillsborough Bridge a small mill which was the beginning of the extensive knit goods factory now owned and operated by the Contoocook Mills Company, of which Mr. Smith is the president and principal owner. He continued his residence in Manchester for 17 years and has been a resident of Hillsborough since 1880, where he has lately erected a fine residence. His wife is Emma E., daughter of Stephen Lavender of Boston, and they have one son, their first born having died at the age of two years. Mr. Smith is a Congregationalist in religion and in politics has always been an earnest Republican, serving his party as a presidential elector in 1884 and as a member of the executive council in 1887-9, and he has always been active in the councils of his party. He has been strong, self-reliant, energetic, persistent and has achieved a wonderful success in the business world, having amassed a competence which enables him to give with a free hand to every good work that commends itself to his conscience and judgment. He is dignified, yet approachable and companionable, and is one of the true and solid men of the Old Granite State, whom the people delight to honor by official preferment.

COUNCIL.

District No. 1.—TRUE L. NORRIS, Portsmouth. Democrat, Episcopal, editor, married. Born in Manchester and educated in the public schools of New Hampshire and Massachusetts and fitted for Harvard college, but instead of entering college, he enlisted in the service of his country, serving in the 5th Massachusetts Vols. He afterwards read law in the office of his father, the late Col. A. F. L. Norris, in Boston, and was admitted to practice on the day he became of age. He practiced his profession in Boston for several years and then entered the newspaper profession, and for several years he represented the New York Herald, Boston Globe and Manchester Union in Concord. When Col. Charles A. Sinclair purchased the Daily Evening Times and Weekly States and Union in 1887, he went to Portsmouth and became editor and manager of both papers and has remained there until this time, where he has achieved a phenomenal success in building up these papers till they rank among the first in the state in circulation and influence. Col. Norris is a sagacious business man, of broad and liberal ideas; there isn't a brighter, keener or more popular newspaper man in the state, and his training and experience render him amply qualified to fill any position. He is thoroughly Democratic, and comes from good old New Hampshire Jeffersonian Democratic stock, being a nephew of the late U. S. Senator Moses Norris. He is a member of Storer Post No. 1, G. A. R., a Mason and Odd Fellow, Redman and Elk.

District No. 2.—JOHN C. RAY, Manchester. Republican, Superintendent of the State Industrial school, married; age, 66. Born in Hopkinton and has resided in Dunbarton and Chicopee, Mass., served as selectman and superintendent of schools and has been a justice of the peace 40 years. When he was a member of the House in 1852 he was, with one exception, the youngest member of the house, but his youth did not prevent him from becoming one of the most active and influential members. Dunbarton honored him subsequently by electing him chairman of the board of selectmen and superintendent of schools, positions which he filled to the satisfaction of all. July 2, 1874, he became superintendent of the State Industrial School and has filled the position so acceptably that he has been year by year unanimously re-elected, notwithstanding his often repeated desire to retire from the position. Mr. Ray's administration of affairs there has been characterized by great kindness but unflinching firmness in his dealing with the wayward youth intrusted to him, and it would be hard to find a man who could manage the farm more successfully. Under his faithful management the institution has taken rank in the forefront of similar institutions in this country. He was one of the trustees of the normal school and has always taken a deep interest in educational affairs. He also takes great interest in stock-raising and owns one of the best stock farms in Dunbarton or even Merrimack county. Member of the House in 1852, 53, 54 and 81.

District No. 3.—EDWARD O. BLUNT, Nashua. Republican, Congregationalist, merchant, married; age, 46. Born in Nashua, educated there and always resided there. Has held a number of city offices and represented his ward in the board of Aldermen for three years, only one other person having that record in the ward. Is very prominent in city politics and was chairman of the City Committee in 1888 and 1892; one of the board of Police Commissioners for Nashua, which office he resigned upon being elected Councilor. Is a Knight Templar and 32d Mason, also one of the Directors and Treasurer of the Masonic building association; trustee of City Savings Bank and Security Trust Co., a Knight of Pythias, member New Hampshire club and the Congregational club. Served in the House in 1881 and in the Senate in 1887. Always a Republican.

District No. 4.—FRANK N. PARSONS, Franklin, Republican, no religious preference stated, lawyer, married; age, 38. Born in Dover, Sept. 3, 1854. Educated at Dartmouth College. Has served as State Reporter since June, 1891. Member of the Constitutional Convention of 1889. Always a Republican.

District No. 5.—HERBERT B. MOULTON, Lisbon. Democrat, engaged in the lumber and live stock business, doing an extensive business as drover, married; age, 46. Born in Lyman July 5, 1846. Educated in the common schools. Is a man of sound judgment and served the town of Lyman as member of the House in 1876 and 77 and was member from Lisbon in 1885. Is an active Democrat.

He comes of the best old New England stock, his father being a soldier in the war of 1812, and his grandfather fought at Bunker Hill, and served later in the ranks of the Continental army. Mr. Whitaker had traveled over sixteen of the states and territories before coming of age, and wisely concluding that the state of his birth was the best place for him, he settled in Fisherville, now Penacook, in the year before mentioned, entering the service of his brother-in-law, Seth B. Hoyt, who was engaged in the livery business. Here he was quite a knight of the whip for several years, and finally went into the same business on his own account and continued it until 1866, when in company with the firm of Caldwell and Amsden, he engaged in the manufacture of lumber at the borough, at the privilege now occupied in part by the new Holden Woolen Company and Electrical Machine Works. Here he transacted a lucrative business, up to 1891, when he sold the privilege to Hon. Charles H. Amsden. He has ever been one of the most active, as well as one of the most popular residents of Penacook, taking an active part in all that concerned the welfare of the village, or the interests of the people. Although a Democrat politically, in a strong Republican community, he has been chosen as assessor, in both branches of the city government, and in the state legislature. In the general overturn at the last election in Ward One, his vote was equal to the average given for the candidates elected on the Republican ticket, proving that his popularity is as lasting as it is deserving. He was married in 1859 to Miss Francis E. Caldwell, oldest daughter of the late B. F. Caldwell, and their home on Washington street is one of the pleasantest as it is one of the happiest in Penacook. He was appointed one of the Board of Water Commissioners last year. With the knowledge acquired from a practical business career, as well as being thoroughly informed in state and municipal affairs, none of the senators-elect will be better qualified for the honorable position.

Served as selectman 6 years, on the school board, etc. Served as moderator for the past 15 years. Is a strong advocate for reform in the present system of working highway taxes, claiming that three-fourths of the time and money is wasted. He took the contract last spring to make the roads better in the town of Jackson for 15 years for 1-2 of what has been raised heretofore (or 25 cents a poll and 1-4 of one per cent on resident valuation) and gave $3,000 bonds for faithful performance of the same. He says every town should have one man within its limits who should "take the risk of building all its highways for 15 years, and give bonds for the same, the roads subject to the approval of the selectmen, and the town to assume all damages by accident. The surveyor should receive a certain per cent on the valuation, so if there is an increase he will get it. Why 15 years? Because what extra he puts in a road will accrue to him at the latter end, and by so doing improve our roads quickly. If the town surveyor should lay out three times his percentage the first two or three years his money would come back three-fold. This is the only sure way to improve our highways of which there is great need." Always a Democrat.
